In support of cited request for promotion of [REDACTED] to Chief,

[REDACTED] it is noted that [REDACTED] has been acting in the capacity of chief of this [REDACTED] for eighteen months, performing duties as described for the proposed position, Bu. No. F-142. During his administration of the [REDACTED] its efficiency and the scope of its operation has increased phenomenally. In June, 1946, intercepted material supplied to Washington was of scanty volume, slow in transmission, and of marginal value.

[REDACTED] has broadened coverage, increased efficiency and developed communications to the point that [REDACTED] has become one of the most valuable field stations of the Branch, supplying material not only from the Near and Middle East, but from Eastern Europe and USSR regional transmitters as well. His work in developing friendly relations with American, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] officials in the area has also been of importance in the present political situation.
